THE · HUMAN · ATLAS
INSTITUTE
Where lived immersion alters perception

What Matters, NOW?

Detailed four day schedule

Day One - Opening the Inquiry

October 10, 2027

9:00 AM–1:00 PM | Opening Session

Welcome and introductions. The Five Pillars and the opening exploration of What Matters, NOW?

1:00–2:00 PM | Lunch

2:00–5:00 PM | What Matters, NOW?

Individual exploration, small-group conversations, and collective discussion.

Evening | Apéro & Dinner

Day Two - Culture

October 11, 2027

9:00 AM–1:00 PM | Culture, Music & Preservation

Guest conversation with Arnaud LeGrand, followed by guitar performance, discussion and reflection.

1:00–2:00 PM | Lunch

2:00–5:00 PM | Culture & Place

A conversation with a local cultural attaché, followed by an exploration of how culture shapes what matters to us now.

Evening | Free

THE · HUMAN · ATLAS
INSTITUTE
Where lived immersion alters perception

What Matters, NOW?

Detailed four day schedule

Day Three - Place

October 12, 2027

9:00 AM–1:00 PM | Experiencing Place

An independent and small-group exploration of the town through its streets, people, architecture, history, art, and everyday life.

1:00–2:30 PM | Lunch in the village of Vence

2:30–5:00 PM | Seeing What We Saw

Creative reflection followed by collective conversation about how differently we experience and interpret the same place.

Evening | Free

Day Four - Identity

October 13, 2027

9:00 AM–1:00 PM | Identity & Place

An exploration of identity, how it is formed and changed, and what the preceding days have revealed about how we see ourselves and others.

1:00–2:00 PM | Lunch

2:00–4:00 PM | Time to Reflect

Unstructured time for conversation, reflection, relaxation, and use of the pool and spa.

4:00–5:00 PM | Closing Gathering

What changed? What remains? What do we take back into our lives and work?

Evening | Apéro & Closing Dinner

The schedule is intentionally flexible. Conversations may evolve, extend, or change direction as the group and the inquiry develop.